From Cape Town N1 via Wellington and Bainskloof pass

Travel out from Cape Town on the N1. Take exit 47, signposted as the Wellington/Klapmuts off ramp (an approximately 45 minute drive). Turn left at the stop sign, just after taking the off ramp and drive in the direction of Wellington, along the R44. Drive along the R44 all the way until you reach a T-junction (there will be a cemetery on your right), an approximately 20/25 minute drive. At these traffic lights, turn left into Piet Retief Street (R303). At the next set of traffic lights, (the Dutch Reformed Church will be on your left) turn right into the R301 (Church Street/Kerk Straat) to Bainskloof. Keep on this road all the way over the Bainskloof pass. You will pass Eerste Tol at the top of the pass and then the road will begin descending. The next landmark will be the Limietberg Nature Conservation camp site (on your left). Driving a bit further you will pass Steenboks Park, also on the left hand side. Approximately 3km after this you will see 3 white cottages on the left hand side of the road, there is a sign on the black gate which says "Bastiaanskloof" and you have arrived. The journey will take you approximately an hour and a half.

From the N2 via Wellington and the Bainskloof pass

Take the N2 North from Cape Town/the airport. Travel for approximately 20 minutes and then take the R44 off ramp next to the Somerset Mall shopping centre on the N2 (Exit 43), follow this road all the way through to Stellenbosch. Once in Stellenbosch follow the R44 to Wellington via Agter Paarl. Once you pass under the bridge of the N1 highway, drive along the R44 all the way towards Wellington until you reach a T-junction (there will be a cemetery on your right). At these traffic lights, turn left into Piet Retief Street (R303). At the next set of traffic lights, (the Dutch Reformed Church will be on your left) turn right into the R301 (Church Street/Kerk Straat) to Bainskloof. Keep on this road all the way over the Bainskloof pass. You will pass Eerste Tol at the top of the pass and then the road will begin descending. The next landmark will be the Limietberg Nature Conservation campsite (on your left). Driving a bit further you will pass Steenboks Park, also on the left hand side. Approximately 3km after this you will see 3 white cottages on the left hand side of the road, which are the Bastiaanskloof cottages. There is a sign on the gate, which says "Bastiaanskloof", and you have arrived. The journey will take you approximately an hour and a half.

Via Du Toitskloof Tunnel on the N1

Travel out from Cape Town on the N1. Travel until you reach the Du Toitskloof Toll, for which you will have to pay R30.00 to pass through. Go through the Du Toitskloof Tunnel and drive for approximately 20 minutes towards Worcester. Just before Worcester, on the left hand side, you will see a sign for the R43 to Ceres and on the corner is a Shell Ultra City Petrol Garage. Turn left onto the R43 and travel all the way along for about 20/25 minutes or 28km. From 28km look out for a sign on the left hand side saying Bainskloof/Wellington/R301. Turn left here. If you carry on straight you will end up going to Wolsely/Ceres! Travel over 2 small bridges, past the Calabash Bush Pub on your right and approximately 1km on your right from here are the 3 white cottages (you will see the Bastiaanskloof sign on the black gate). The journey should take you an hour and a half.

From the airport/N2 via Du Toitskloof Tunnel (on the N1)

Drive out of the airport and take the N2 towards Somerset West . The third turn off after the airport is Exit 22A, the R300 towards Belville. Take this turnoff and travel along the R300 for approximately 10/15 minutes until you see signs for the N1 towards Paarl and Worcester. Take this turn off and travel along the N1 for approximately 30 minutes until you reach the Du Toitskloof Toll, for which you will have to pay R30.00 to pass through. Go through the Du Toitskloof Tunnel and drive for approximately 20 minutes towards Worcester. Just before Worcester, on the left hand side, you will see a sign for the R43 to Ceres and on the corner is a Shell garage. Turn left onto the R43 and travel all the way along for about 20/25 minutes or 28km. From 28km look out for a sign on the left hand side saying Bainskloof/Wellington/R301. Turn left here.
